

Episode Two / Boeing 737-800

This is the second ever episode of Neutral.

In this episode Glenn and Damo set up a story for Jason that allows him to for fill a life long dream.

The format of the show returns to normal this time with a feature story and then a short segment on a mechanical tech tip.

So what is the feature story this week, well just watch the show and you will find out. All we can tell you is that it features a Boeing 727-800.

Flight Simulator 737

Flight Simulator 737 allow you to take the controls for a “once in a life time experience”. Flight Simulator 737

at Archerfield in Brisbane has opened its Boeing 737 simulator to the public. For most people, flying a highly expensive, high tech airline simulator is only a dream, now this experience can be yours. You can fly a real Boeing 737 Simulator like the airline pilots do.

Flight Simulator 737 offers flights in the Flight Training Australia Boeing 737 simulator used to train their airline pilots from Australia and around the world.
